Tips, Tools & Techniques

Greetings,

All too often I hear statements that hold us back from being creative. Comments, such as: "my handwriting is too awful to do calligraphy", I can not draw a straight line", "I'm not crafty". There are those great masters of art and science that may intimidate our lowly skills. Seriously, who wants to be another Van Gogh or Pollock? When you say to yourself that you "can't", remember these words:

Creativity Takes No Excuses

If it's important enough, you will make time for it.

If you do not know where to start, start anywhere.

If you feel stuck, ask someone to help you out.

If you are tired, take a timed break.

If you don't know how to do it, try doing what you can.

If you believe that you can do it, you will. (Anonymous)

I am always available to help you dip that quill, draw that line or craft an item. If not me, I know some one who is more than willing to help you in any creative journey that you choose to take. Just Try!

Lady Killian MacKenzie
